Education

Ph.D., Cornell University
M.A., George Washington University
B.A., Brandeis University

Professional Experience

Assistant Professor, Michigan State University, Department of Fisheries and Wildlife,
School of Criminal Justice, 2008-present.
Visiting Scholar, Decision Research, 2007.
Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Fisheries and Wildlife, Michigan State University, 2006-2007.
Graduate Teaching Assistant, Department of Natural Resources, Cornell University, 2005.
Graduate Research Assistant, Department of Natural Resources, Cornell University, 2002 - 2006.
Research Assistant, Management Institute for Environment and Business, World
Resources Institute, 2000-2001.
Wolf Programs Coordinator, Defenders of Wildlife, 2000.

Honors and Awards

Excellence Award in Interdisciplinary Scholarship, MSU Chapter of The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, 2011
Keynote Speaker, Biology Seminar Series, Lake Superior State University, 2010
Keynote Speaker, Standing on the Shoulders of Giants Symposium, State University of New York, School of Environment and Forestry, 2010
National Science Foundation's STEM Education Scholars Program Fellow, 2009
Michigan State University's Office of the Provost Diversity Fellowship, 2006-2007
Honorable Mention, Cornell University Department of Natural Resources/College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Outstanding Graduate Teaching Assistant, 2006
AAA/Science Program for Excellence in Science Award, 2006
Cornell University Sustainability Summit Award Dinner with Dr. Gro Harlan Brundtland, 2005
Emerging Wildlife Conservation Leadership Program, 2004-2006
Cornell University Charles Lathrop Pack Foundation Essay Contest Winner, 2002 and 2003
George Washington University Center for Environmental Policy and Sustainability
Research Award, 2000
Rachel Carson Award for Environmental Citizenship, Brandeis University, 1999

Course Instruction

Primary or Co-instructor (* co-instructor, ^ new course)

- Gender, Justice, and Environment: Issues and Concepts* (FW 858) (2010-present)
Issues and concepts related to gender, ecology, and environmental studies; key debates and theoretical approaches to addressing environmental issues from a gender and social justice perspective; gender and environmental issues and processes from a global perspective.
- Sophomore Seminar in Fisheries and Wildlife*^ (FW 293) (2009)
Case studies highlighting the interdisciplinary nature of fisheries and wildlife management.
- Global Risks, Conservation and Criminology^ (FW 847; Online) (2008-present)
Theories, actors, characteristics and legal instruments associated with the risk, conservation, and criminology related to globalization; strategies for overcoming global environmental risks; current case studies in criminological conservation.
- Paradise in Peril? Exploring Madagascar's Biodiversity Crisis (FW 480) (2008*, 2010^ - present)
Fisheries and wildlife ecology and conservation study in Madagascar; ecological, social, cultural, criminological, political and economic influences on fisheries and wildlife resources.
- Risk Communication in Fisheries and Wildlife Management*^ (FW 893) (2008)
Theory and practice of risk communication associated with fisheries and wildlife management, strategies to implement and evaluate risk communication related to fisheries and wildlife management.
- Human Dimensions of Fisheries and Wildlife (FW 810) (2007-present)
Methods of surveying, educating, and involving the public to achieve fish and management goals; review of human dimensions research and current case studies.

Independent Studies in Fisheries and Wildlife^ (FW491) (2007 – 1 student, 2009 – 1 student)
Methods of surveying diverse stakeholder to achieve research and/or management objectives; theories, methods, and practice of environmental evaluation.

Guest lecturer at Michigan State University (number of times lectured since 2007)
